YALUMBA

AUSTRALIA'S OLDEST FAMILY OWNED WINERY

June 25, 2009: On The Today Show, Leslie Sbrocco pointed to several inexpensive wines sure to please the palates of all your guests.

“Terrific barbecue wine”

Yalumba Y Series Sangiovese Rose

‘These affordable wines will add spice to any soiree.’

“Rose is the ultimate summer sipper. These pink wines are made from red grapes crushed quickly to gain only a hint of color. Australia, Italy and the U.S. are making world-class dry-style pinks...”

Yalumba Y Series Sangiovese Rose

(Australia) (about $11)

“From Australia’s oldest family-owned winery comes a watermelon-scented pink that’s dry and delicious. Stock up on this for all your summer drinking because it pairs easily with most foods as well as simply being a wine to sip poolside.”
